

COX TO OPEN SHOW?

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE TO BE LEADING FIGURE FIRST DAY OF TRACTOR SHOW

Gov. James Middleton Cox, Democratic candidate for President, will be in Los Angeles Sept. 20th, the date the National Tractor and Implement Show opens in Verdugo Woodlands, Glendale, and the managers of the big show have asked him to officiate at the opening. Negotiations are now in progress and it is thought certain they will be successful. As this is to be a National show the managers thought it quite appropriate to seize this opportunity to secure as an added attraction a candidate for a National office.

Events are moving rapidly this last week of preparation. The Glendale city authorities are getting the grounds in shape and work at the Los Angeles end of the line is being pushed. Representatives of some of the largest implement manufacturers of the Nation are in the big city, arranging for space, and otherwise promoting the interests of their companies.

Although this is to be a "still" show, there will be plenty of action, nevertheless, not in the way of demonstrating tractors by actual plowing, etc., but by gearing the big machines to farm implements and illustrating by pictures and explanations the workings of the exhibits.

EAST AND WEST

TWO SECTIONS CONTEST FOR HONORS AT CHRISTIAN SUNDAY SCHOOL

Yesterday was the next to the last Sunday in the contest of states in the Central Christian Sunday School. Those east of the Mississippi not represented by their states in former contests vied with those similarly situated west of the great river and the east won. The contest was in attendance and the efforts of the two sides resulted in the largest number present in many months. It was "Go to College Day" also and the decorations were partly of college pennants and colors. Kansas sunflowers and pampas grass were used very effectively also.

In the church service Rev. Cole spoke on "Christian Education," after short addresses had been made by five young people who had been seated on the rostrum back of him. Mrs. Mary Archer, one of the grammar school teachers, spoke briefly on "Why I Went Away to College;" Frances Muser, Edith Learned and Loys Griswold on "Why I Am Entering College," all of whom said it was for the purpose of a better education so they could help others; and Willard Learned on "What a College Education Has Meant to Me." He said it meant the realization of a boyhood ambition and the fitting of his life to a fixed purpose, that of carrying the Gospel of Life to heathen lands. Rev. Cole gave many reasons why a college education was a benefit to men and women, stating that 70 per cent of those in high positions were college graduates, though only 1 per cent of American students who enter college graduate therefrom. Other significant facts along this line were stated. The special musical number was a beautiful solo by Harry Marple.

The evening sermon subject was "That Bushel Measure" from that saying by the Master in the sermon on the mount on hiding one's light under a bushel. Misses Garnet Peters and Alice Mercer rendered a very pleasing duet.

Obstreperous Prisoner

Yesterday afternoon two men who had stopped at the corner of Los Feliz Road and Brand Boulevard, to fix their machine were reported as acting very queerly, so two officers were sent down there to investigate. They found El Michado, driver of the car, very much under the influence of liquor, but his companion, Joe Ferrali, a passenger, perfectly sober. He had induced Michado to stop because he had been driving "all over the road," endangering other motorists. Both men were taken to the city jail but Ferrali was not imprisoned as no charge could lie against him. Michado resisted so violently when officers started to jail him that he nearly tore the clothes off of Policeman Blix. Last night he set his bedding on fire and firemen turned the hose on it and him till both were subdued.

CAMP DEDICATED

BOY SCOUTS, "DADDIES" AND COUNCILORS CARRY OUT APPOINTED PROGRAM

Promptly at 2 p. m. Saturday the Boy Scouts, who had formed in parade on Colorado just west of Brand, moved with colors flying and bugles blowing, north on Brand to Wilson avenue, back then to Broadway, out Broadway to Glendale avenue, thence up to the new camp on the slopes of Sister Elsie Peak north of La Crescenta. There were 54 Scouts in line of twos, with Scoutmaster S. B. Kellogg in charge, Assistant H. Ben Robinson as Marshal and Troop Leaders B. Robinson, Dr. Montague Cleaves and Stillman Chase commanding the two divisions. There were 11 autos in the parade, also, and in these were councilors, fathers of Scouts and others interested in the boys. A trailer carried blankets and camp equipment to be used that night.

Arrived at the camp, the dedicatory exercises were gone through according to the program published in the Evening News. One important feature not so outlined which came as a distinct surprise, was the presentation, just after the salute to the flag, of Eagle Scout Pins, the highest decoration of the order, on H. Benjamin Robinson, who has won 32 merit badges, and Robert Searle, who has 26. Just after the dedicatory exercises had been finished the boys and their daddies enjoyed a fine swim in the pool.

That night a camp fire was held during which several short plays were given, games played and songs sung. The boys and their elders were all delighted to have with them Mr. and Mrs. Akin, who so generously provided grounds on which to locate the camp, which was named Glenakin, in honor of them and the city of Glendale.

Sunday morning Scout church was held for half an hour and then camp was broken and all returned home in time for services at the various Glendale churches. Among the Councilors present on Saturday were Roy L. Kent, S. R. Frazee and C. W. Ingledue.

This beautifully located and equipped camp is the result of much planning by the Scouts and their patrons and will be used extensively as a resort.

BOYS' AMUSEMENTS

MEN OF GLENDAL SHOULD GET BUSY AND PROVIDE WHOLESOME RECREATION

Men of Glendale, it is important, indeed, that we get busy and take up some of our problems, including provision for the wholesome amusement of the young men of our city. The Editor of the Evening News is in a position to say some pretty plain things on this subject for the reason that he has been and is at the present time in radical opposition to any kind of amusement that will lead to the forming of pernicious habits on the part of boys, but his observation has taught him that the best results are not always obtained by being too radical when dealing with young men. When we become too positive in our rules and commands we usually get nowhere in controlling their lives. It is necessary for those who have the most influence over young men whether the influence be for good or evil to get in close touch with them. And now if the men of Glendale are anxious to better the conditions of the youth of the city they first must bring themselves upon the same level in the way of being interested in their amusements and their physical welfare.

All classes of men must get together on this question of providing wholesome amusement for the boys. There must be no division as to membership in club, church, Greater Glendale Development Association, Chamber of Commerce or any other organization. The only requirement is to have the right heart, the will to work and an uplifting interest in the young men. No time to be spent in telling what the other fellow won't do but all time to be spent in doing; no time to be spent in telling about hell holes but all time to be spent in providing clean, wholesome games and amusements.

We have the boys in our community, they possess the life and energy of the average boys, the opportunity is presented to us. Let us unitedly grasp it.

TEXTILE MILLS SEIZED IN ITALY

VICTORY OF MODERISTS OVER EXTREMISTS FOLLOWS A LENGTHY DEBATE AT MILAN CONFERENCE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
ROME, Italy, Sept. 13.—In the face of the decision by a majority of workmen's and socialists' representatives not to proclaim a general strike or to transform the present economic situation into a political struggle, scores of textile mills in Milan, Alexandria, and other provinces were seized today. Dispatches received here said that 26 were taken over in Turin alone.

Troop trains were held up at Bologna and Parma by the order of the railroad workers' syndicate that no troops should be transported in Northern Italy.

The victory of the Moderists over the Extremists occurred at a conference in Milan, following debate which lasted all day Saturday and last night. The Extremist resolution, which would have practically put into effect the principles of the Third Internationale was voted down by a majority of 90,000 out of a total representation of 1,100,000. A compromise resolution presented by Deputy Dragona, who represented the metal workers, was adopted by a majority of 200,000.

Negotiations with the manufacturers were reopened yesterday after the victory of the Moderists.

VIEWS ON JAPANESE QUESTION

BOTH PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES WILL SOON BE ON RECORD ON IMPORTANT MATTER

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—Before the end of the week both Senator Harding and Governor Cox, opposing presidential candidates, will be on record on the Japanese question, it was promised here today. Democratic regional headquarters declared that Governor Cox, now in Oregon, will begin a study of the Japanese question as soon as he crosses the California state line. On arrival in California, Cox will discuss the issue with leaders, including Senator Phelan, it was stated.

Senator Harding will outline his views with regard to the Japanese question tomorrow, when he speaks to the California delegation from his front porch in Marion.

COX MUST CANCEL OUTDOOR SPEECHES

THROAT TROUBLE INTERFERES WITH SPEAKING CAMPAIGN PLANNED BY DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—A telegram to Democratic regional headquarters here was received today, saying that Governor Cox, under his physicians' orders, must cancel all outdoor speeches, excepting brief talks from the rear platform of his train, while in California. Trouble with his throat was the cause, the telegram said. Democratic headquarters here wired Sacramento and Los Angeles, where outdoor meetings were scheduled, saying a change in plans will be necessary. Meetings in those two cities must be held indoors.

OLIVE THOMAS AUTOPSY

JACK PICKFORD SWEARS HIS WIFE ACCIDENTALLY TOOK POISON INSTEAD OF SLEEPING POTION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PARIS, Sept. 13.—An autopsy was to be held over the body of Olive Thomas today. Jack Pickford, husband of the actress, has gone to London via airplane, and was expected to return here on Wednesday.

Pickford's sworn statement given at the police inquest said he and his wife had returned to the Ritz after a night of celebration at the Montmartre Cafe, and that Miss Thomas had accidentally taken poison instead of a sleeping potion.

MAC SWINEY IN STATE OF COLLAPSE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, Sept. 13.—Mayor MacSwiney was still alive today but in a state of collapse, according to a Sinn Fein bulletin. He spent a bad night and was unable to speak, the report said.

Seven of eleven hunger strikers in the Cork prison have collapsed, and one is dying, according to Sinn Fein reports. They have been without food for 34 days.

OUTLAW SWITCHMEN RETURN TO WORK

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—Outlaw railway switchmen were returning to work today following a mass meeting of 8000 members of the Yardmen's Association who voted overwhelmingly to end the outlaw switchmen's strike, which has lasted since March. Railroad officials predicted greatly improved freight service.

SEWER PROBLEM

MEN DISCUSS QUESTION AND HEAR PLAN PROPOSED BY ENGINEER OLMSTEAD

In the neighborhood of 75 citizens of Glendale, who were anxious to learn concerning Engineer Olmstead's sewer disposal plan for the city, responded to a suggestion made by the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale and went out to Scholl's Canyon Saturday afternoon, climbed to the summit of one of the hills, and there listened to Mr. Olmstead explain as to his method of installing a sewer system for all of the City of Glendale.

In his preliminary statements he said that it had been the policy of the government at the time of the opening of the war, wherever military camps were established, to install sewer systems immediately so that sanitary conditions might be properly cared for. Mr. Olmstead called attention to the fact that although Glendale is now a city of 15,000 population there has not been any well-organized plans as yet for taking care of sewerage. He said the argument is used that the sandy and porous condition of the soil permits the liquids to seep away and thus it takes care of itself by being emptied into cesspools. The very reason that the soil is porous and this seepage takes place readily is a good argument that sewage should not be allowed too generally to pollute the soil that connects with nearby grounds from which water is furnished.

The plan for a sewerage system in Glendale, as presented by this gentleman, would be about as follows: That the entire city be bonded for the amount necessary to install the main pipe lines; install the pumping plants; provide for a pumping system which would pump the liquid portions to the region of Scholl's Canyon and at that place provide the necessary appliances for taking care of the same. The plan specifies that the solids would be separated from the liquids at stations at remote sections in the eastern part of the city. The liquids would be pumped to the canyon and the solids would be transported to that place by means of auto trucks provided for the purpose. Both liquids and solids would be used for fertilizing purposes.

The aggregate cost of the entire plant would probably be between

Many Homes Building

Perry A. Wells and E. L. Acton suddenly decided last Saturday that they would like to know approximately how many new residences are under construction and old ones undergoing remodeling in Glendale, so they jumped into a machine and traversed the streets both ways between Kenilworth and Glendale avenues, Windsor Road and the Wash. The number they ascertained was 186, and nearly all are new residences. As is well known, there is considerable building going on in Glendale outside these limits, hence the total number cannot be far from 250, maybe more. And, of course, hundreds of other homes have been finished and occupied during the past year.

RIDGON'S RETURN

GLAD TO BE HOME AFTER TOUR OF UNITED STATES AND CANADA

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Rigdon and son Warren returned to Glendale Sunday after a tour of nearly six weeks in eastern states and in Canada. On their journey they visited Denver, Kansas City, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Baltimore, New York, Poughkeepsie, Buffalo, Toronto, Winnipeg, Vancouver and Seattle. They visited relatives in the east and said they had abundant opportunity to observe conditions. They found that the cost of living is higher and rents are higher there than here. In fact they found no place where one may live so cheaply as in Southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. Rigdon have crossed the United States several times and this time they determined to see Canada also so they took the Canadian Pacific on their return and enjoyed the wonderful scenery for which that road is famous.

Mr. Rigdon who has done considerable building in Glendale, will begin at once the erection of a two-story house beside his residence at 224 W. Doran St.

LANDMARK REMOVED

FRAME BUILDING AT 128 SOUTH BRAND TAKEN TO ANOTHER SITE

The large 7-room residence which has stood for so many years at 128 South Brand boulevard is today being moved by the owner, C. A. Bunting, to a lot he owns at 245 North Maryland avenue, corner of California avenue. It is being taken up Brand to California and will reach its destination some time this evening. Owing to the many wires and cables crossing Brand, this was a very difficult job of moving. The two cobblestone chimneys were moved with house but the portions projecting above the roof were torn down. Mr. Bunting intends to finish the two up-stairs rooms, making it a 9-room residence, and paint it inside and out.

Twelve years ago this house and the one at 208 South Brand, now owned and occupied by Mattison B. Jones and family, were the only buildings of any kind on that side of the street between Broadway and Elk avenue. A fine business building is to arise on the lot just vacated by the house, by Dr. Goodno, owner of the new Glendale Theater, and a similar one on the lot just south of it, owned by Roy L. Kent. Each lot has a frontage of 51.72 feet and a depth of 130 feet.

Big Bible Class

M. P. Harrison, R. P. Isitt, J. R. Baker, J. K. Gilkerson and J. A. Newton drove to Long Beach Sunday and visited the Taubman Men's Bible Class. They were very much impressed by this gathering of 800 men who filled the auditorium of one of Long Beach's largest theaters. Rev. W. E. Edmonds, who is spending his vacation in Long Beach, met these men from his church and asked them to bring back to Glendale his emphatic protest against the proposed amendment to the city ordinance which prohibits the operating of pool rooms in Glendale. Rev. Edmonds said when he heard of the effort being made to open pool halls in Glendale he looked around at those in Long Beach and found them entirely undesirable for a clean city such as Glendale.

Electric Car Ordinance

The trustees of the City of Glendale have on passage at the present time an ordinance requiring that Pacific Electric cars, and other electric cars, maintain the same speed in crossing streets as the law requires for speed of automobiles at street crossings. There has been considerable complaint in the past few weeks concerning the unreasonable speed at which the electric cars have been run through the congested portion of our city and especially over crossings of great traffic.

Liability Insurance

The Glendale jitney bus drivers will soon consider themselves in a class by themselves if the proposed city ordinance is passed, which ordinance provides that the owners of jitney autos will be required to carry liability insurance of such amounts as will be likely to cover any loss by accident that may occur to occupants of their autos or to other autos or to the occupants of other autos.

Watson, Chairman, has called this meeting for the purpose of inviting all citizens of Glendale, whether on Committees or not, to avail themselves of the opportunity to be present Tuesday evening, and to give or receive any suggestions for the benefit of the Show.

Struchan, to cost $1855 and another at 1253 Walnut, between Cypress avenue and Los Feliz Road, for M. Y. Salyer. This latter is to be of 5 rooms and a garage is included in the permit, which calls for an outlay of $4000.

"Look'ere—I asks yer for the last time for that 'arf dollar yer owes me."

"Thank 'evens!—that's the end of a silly question."

We await with much interest the fashion announcements as to what women should wear at the polls.

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned heretofore engaged in the dry goods business at 2608 North Broadway, Los Angeles under the firm name of Goltman and Osgood have this day by mutual consent dissolved partnership.

Miss A. G. Goltman will continue the business under the same firm name.

Dated September 1, 1920.

MISS A. G. GOLTMAN.
MRS. G. B. GOLTMAN.

By A. R. EASTMAN
Manager, Glendale Branches, Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank

One dollar deposited in a savings account weekly at 4 per cent, compounded semi-annually, would in ten years amount to $638.04. Ten dollars, saved in the same manner, would amount to the tidy sum of $6,380.47 in the same period.

Now, possibly more than at any other time in the lives of the present generation, is this message applicable. With wages high and the purchasing power of money low, would not this be the time to lay aside ten dollars weekly in a savings account? In ten years would be available a sum—with money that might otherwise be frittered away on luxuries or even necessities—which would mean a beautiful, clear and unnumbered home, or a neat "nest-egg" against old age.

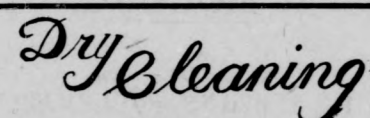

With the readjustment period in existence and the promise of more normal conditions in the future, the purchasing power of money will no doubt become greater. Against that time, however, it must appeal to everyone that now is the time to start a savings account at either the Glendale Avenue Branch or the Brand Boulevard Branch of the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank, and let it grow, untouched, for a number of years. The money will not be idle either, for the depositor or for the bank. It will be earning more money for the depositor and the bank, under every possible legal safeguard, will use the money in such a manner that the industrial side of the community will be benefitted incidental to its required growth.

The tabulation reproduced herewith should be clipped and kept in some place where it will act as a reminder to the reader of the advantages to be obtained from following its advice:

SEWER PROBLEM

$400,000 and $500,000. This cost would not, however, include the installation of laterals and connections for house service. The laterals would be taken care of by the assessment plan, the cost being so much per foot of frontage.

It has been Mr. Olmstead's opinion that the sewage can be taken care of by a well-installed system throughout the entire city at a less expense in a given number of years than it can be by taking care of it by the present imperfect method.

The Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale are very anxious that the property owners and others interested in the city express their views very promptly and decidedly on this important question. The Trustees have declared themselves to be in favor of using all possible diligence to carry out the wishes of the people. But, that intelligent action may be taken, it is necessary to get the views of the people. To call a bond election at considerable expense and have it defeated would make it seem that the city officials had been careless in learning the will of the people prior to calling the election. So, men and women of Glendale, get busy at once and express your views on this question through the Evening News or otherwise, and in so doing you will be considered a public benefactor to the community in which you live.

Two propositions were presented to the people in attendance at the Canyon Saturday afternoon. One was that 800 acres be purchased at an expense of about $200,000, and

For More Residences

The realty men of Anaheim, where the housing situation is apparently a perplexing problem as in Glendale, are proceeding along the same lines as is our own realty board, but in a slightly different manner. A committee has been appointed that will canvass among public-spirited citizens for a nucleus fund of $50,000, to be used for the construction of suitable dwelling houses. The plan contemplates the borrowing of money at 6 per cent and loaning it to a local building association which will use it for this purpose for 10 years, with such added sums as can be gathered. This plan may offer some suggestions to our own realty men, who are vitally interested, along with other citizens, in providing more accommodations for intending residents.

Fight for Fortune

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—(United Press)—A legal fight for the $150,000 estate of the late William H. Moore, furniture dealer who died in June, is expected to begin today when an application for probate of his will is heard by Judge Graham.

Moore expressed the belief "a boy shouldn't have too much money and, accordingly, he made no provision for his 16-year-old son, placing the estate in trust for ten years so that other relatives may benefit from its proceeds.

Problem of the Aliens

With aliens from Europe arriving in the United States at the rate of more than 20,000 a week, the problem of helping these incomers to fit into activities of this country again presses for solution.

Heretofore it has been the policy of the government, after assuring itself that the immigrants would not become public charges, to permit the aliens to look out for themselves and the natural result was a drift to the large centers of population and to the foreign colonies. A better plan than that is necessary or the newcomers to the United States will render the problems of the cities more acute by the attempt to absorb thousands who are strangers to the language and customs of this country.

The government might well take a little time to investigate the fitness of immigrants for certain lines of work before they are thrown upon any community to shift for themselves. No doubt many of them would be found well qualified as agricultural workers, and it would be a mistake to send these into overcrowded industrial districts.

Many aliens proved troublesome during the war period because of their sympathies for old-world customs and their ignorance of American institutions. The immigration laws have been strengthened by placing safeguards against radicalism, but it is even more important that immigrants be helped to engage in the work for which they are best fitted.

Save Agricultural Lands

Wasteful methods of irrigation due to poor land leveling and checking, leaky canals and farm ditches, and careless handling of the water will ultimately result in the ruin and abandonment of the farm, if not immediately reclaimed by complete drainage, according to an announcement issued today at the College of Agriculture of the State University.

Pictorial representation of four farms showing the contrast between farms improperly irrigated and the land as it appears after careful preparation of the land and careful irrigation methods serves to illustrate the statement of the authorities at the University that "permanent agriculture under irrigation is possible only where water is used without waste."

This may be the age of woman—but she is not telling it if she is over twenty-five.

The minority can always be depended on to make up in noise what it lacks in numbers.

the ground necessary for the sewer system to be used for that purpose, and the balance of the ground, which would be remote from the sewer grounds, to be used for a park. Proposition No. 2 was that only the ground necessary for taking care of the sewage disposal be purchased, which would probably not cost more than $40,000 or $50,000. The Evening News is emphatically in favor of keeping the sewage disposal a question by itself, and not mixing it up with any pleasure park. The seven years' experience we have had in listening to park discussions and talk about appropriations for buying parks has not been very satisfactory, and if we are ambitious to get somewhere with an up-to-date way of taking care of the sewage of Glendale we should consider that question by itself and not tie any park strings to it.

City Manager T. W. Watson, being aware that the visitors would have a keen appetite after climbing the mountains and breathing the pure Scholl Canyon air for a period of two hours, called upon about half a dozen employees of the city to prepare a small barbecue roast, and that, with other appetizing foods, was served to the visitors at the hour of 5. The men observed with the big carving knives and white aprons were Frank Camargo, Lollie Nelson, and other members of the Street Department.

Two New "Blues" Songs

Marion Harris, the little vaudeville artist who has done a lot to make "blues" songs popular, has two new syncopated laments on Columbia Records this month. In "Oh Judge (He Treats Me Mean)" she tells her troubles as a wife, and in "He Done Me Wrong" she tells her troubles as a sweetheart. Whatever troubles Marion tells are good for a whole lot of laughs.

Frank Crumit makes an eloquent plea for jazz in that ragtime melody "Don't Take Away Those Blues" on a Columbia Record this month. His "Good-bye, Dixie, Good-bye," on the other side of this record, is a Southern syncopation with a real appeal.

The Paul Biese Trio trots through its best paces in its two new fox-trots for Columbia Records this month. "In Sweet September" is its dance version of Al Jolson's latest song hit, and "Sweet Sugar Babe" is a Southern melody.

Red Cross Conference

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—(United Press)—Ninety-one northern California Red Cross chapters and nineteen Nevada chapters were to be represented at the regional conference here today and tomorrow. Business sessions are to be held both days in Pacific division headquarters, with luncheons each noon in the St. Francis hotel.

A similar conference will be held September 20th and 21st in Los Angeles and will be attended by representatives from thirty-seven chapters in Southern California and from sixteen Arizona chapters.

The meeting here was to be opened this morning with an address of welcome by George Filmer, manager of the Pacific division of the American Red Cross. Directors of the various departments also will speak. Today's luncheon was to be addressed by Fred Bebergall, department adjutant of the American Legion, on the subject of "Relations Between the Red Cross and the American Legion." Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, president of Stanford university, is scheduled to talk tomorrow on "The Junior Red Cross."

The True Government

A majority held in restraint by constitutional checks and limitations, and always changing easily with deliberate changes of popular opinions and sentiments, is the only true sovereign of a free people. Whoever rejects it does of necessity fly to anarchy or despotism. Unanimity is impossible. The rule of a minority, as a permanent arrangement, is wholly inadmissible; so that, rejecting the majority principle, anarchy or despotism in some form is all that is left.—Abraham Lincoln.
